Meeting agreements for the Child and Family Well-Being Task Force

- Family and self-care come first.
- Be kind and gentle with yourself and others and assume everyone is coming from a positive place.
- Everyone has the best intentions.
- Listen with an open mind and heart.
- Be mindful of this space. Step-in and step-out/Step-up and step-back. Offer your truth and insights and listen to others' truths and insights.
- Treat each other with honor and grace. We are all working under difficult circumstances.
- Embrace diversity. Remember that we all come from different backgrounds giving us different perspectives and only when we embrace that diversity can we develop creative solutions to address the child and family well-being needs in Whatcom County.
- What is said here stays here.
- Have fun.

Using Fist to Five Consensus

Image from Lucid Meetings

- Two, one or fist, will result in further discussion.
- If after three rounds of polling, there remains a two or below, the proposal will be removed and re-worked.
- Once consensus is built (all members provide 3 or above), all members present will be recorded as "approving" the proposal.
