A co-tenant is someone who lives with you and has an ownership interest in your home. Other occupants are people who live with you who don't have ownership interest in your home.

Part 2

Check the appropriate box. See the Documents to Include section in these instructions to determine what to send for proof of age or disability. If you are the surviving spouse/domestic partner, heir, or devisee of a person who previously received the deferral, provide a copy of their death certificate.

Part 3

Complete Part 3 to verify and/or report any changes in homeowners insurance, ownership, occupancy, and liabilities since your last application or renewal. Provide supporting documents as indicated and/or requested.

Part 4

How disposable income is calculated

"Disposable income" has a specific definition for the purpose of this program. Per RCW 84.36.383(6), "disposable income" is adjusted gross income, as defined in the federal internal revenue code, plus all of the following that were not included in, or were deducted from, adjusted gross income:

- Capital gains, other than a gain on the sale of a principal residence that is reinvested in a new principal residence.
- Amounts deducted for losses or depreciation.
- Pensions and annuities.
- Social security act and railroad retirement benefits.
- Military pay and benefits other than attendant-care and medical-aid payments.
- Veterans pay and benefits other than attendant-care, medical-aid payments, VA disability benefits, and DIC.
- Dividend receipts.
- Interest received on state and municipal bonds.

These incomes are included in "disposable income" even when it is not taxable for IRS purposes.

Mid-year income change

If your income substantially decreased for at least two months before the end of the year and you expect the change to continue indefinitely, you may be able to use your new average monthly income to estimate your annual income. Calculate your income by multiplying your new average monthly income (during the months after the change occurred) by 12. Include documentation that shows your new monthly income and when the change occurred with your included documentation.

Example: You retired in May and your monthly income decreased from $3,500 to $1,000 beginning in June. Multiply $1,000 x 12 to estimate your new annual income.

Important: Calculate disposable income for you, your spouse/domestic partner, and any co-tenant(s). If you report income that is very low or zero, attach documentation showing how you meet your daily expenses.

Use Line J to report any income not reported on your tax return and not listed on Lines A through I. Include foreign income not reported on your federal tax return and income contributed by other household members. Provide the source and amount of the income.

How combined disposable income is calculated

Per RCW 84.36.383(1) "combined disposable income" is your disposable income plus the disposable income of your spouse/domestic partner and any co-tenants, minus expenses for you or your spouse/domestic partner for:

- Prescription drugs.
- Treatment or care of either person in the home or in a nursing home, boarding home, or adult family home.
- Health care insurance premiums for Medicare Parts A, B, C, and D only. Amounts paid for insurance premiums other than Medicare Parts A, B, C, and D are not deductible.

Care or treatment in your home means medical treatment or care received in the home, including physical therapy. You can also deduct costs for necessities such as oxygen, special needs furniture, attendant-care, light housekeeping tasks, meals-on-wheels, life alert, and other services that are part of a necessary or appropriate in-home service.

Special instructions for Line O

If you had adjustments to your income for any of the following, report these amounts on Line O and include the documentation you used to calculate the amount of the adjustment.

- Educator expenses.
- Self-employment deductions.
- Health savings account deductions.
- Moving expenses for members of the Armed Forces.
- IRA deduction.
- Alimony paid.
- Student loan interest.
- Tuition and fees.

Income thresholds

The income threshold to qualify for this deferral is the greater of $45,000 or 75% of the county median household income. County specific thresholds can be found at dor.wa.gov/incomethresholds.

Part 5

Section A: Sign and date the application. You are signing under oath acknowledging all information is true and accurate. You understand the deferred amount plus interest is due under the circumstances listed. If any other person, including your spouse/ domestic partner has an ownership interest in the residence, they must also sign and date the application.

Section B: The lien for deferred property taxes and/ or special assessments automatically has first priority. If the contract between you and your lender requires the lender to collect funds to pay real property taxes, the lender can co-sign this application to maintain first lien priority. They must sign before a notary public, the assessor, or deputy assessor where the residence is located.
