

2022 Dry Dock Bullet Points

Tuesday, May 3, 2022

- Disabled parking will open around noon, after our M&O sign crew has finished all the temporary markings

Thursday, May 5, 2022

- Shuttle van service begins
- This will be the last day to move vehicles on or off Lummi Island.
- The last two regularly scheduled sailings before the Whatcom Chief departs for Seattle will be the 9:00 pm (Lummi Island to Gooseberry Point) and the 9:10 pm (Gooseberry Point to Lummi Island)
- Passenger Vessel Floats installed overnight

Friday, May 6, 2022

- Passenger-only Vessel service begins at 5:40 am run
- Assigned business parking begins at Gooseberry Point (check map for details)

Friday, May 20, 2022

- Assigned business parking on Gooseberry Point ends
- The passenger-only ferry will make all of its scheduled runs

Saturday, May 21, 2022

- No ferry service of any kind until the Whatcom Chief returns around 4:00 pm
- Whatcom Chief resumes regular schedule ASAP

Sunday, May 22, 2022

- Last day the shuttle van will provide service

- All vehicles must be removed from the dry dock only parking spaces

Tuesday, May 25, 2022

- All vehicles must be removed from supplemental dry dock parking

Detailed information can be found here

<https://www.whatcomcounty.us/550/Annual-Dry-Dock>